THINGS ABOUT THE HOME

By Frances Dell

If your coffee table, end tables, or dining table has become stained by some careless person placing a glass of liquid on it and leaving it there too long, don't be alarmed.

You can remove it by making a mixture of softened butter and cigarette ashes. Rub the mixture over the stain and it will blend into the wood. Water spots and glass rings on wood surfaces need a be problem no longer.

Better Breakfasts

Let's all start the New Year right by eating a better breakfast. In this jet-propelled age, all of us are plagued with speed fever. We dash from the bed and often don't take time needed for a good breakfast. The few morsels we pick up on the run can't break the night-long fast. Breakfast should provide 1-4 to 1-3 of the day's food. Recent research has proved that if we skip breakfast and eat enough at lunch and dinner to equal the same number of calories it doesn't give the results.

Your body, like an engine, needs fuel to operate, but an engine will stop using fuel when it is not running, while the human uses energy both awake and asleep. It is important to realize that the body burns fuel during sleeping hours just as an engine burns fuel when it idles. The amount of fuel burned depends upon the length of time and the speed with which the engine operates. If you do heavy work your body needs more food.

Breakfast is seldom an elaborate meal. A simple breakfast is quick and easy to prepare and serve. The minutes saved in preparation can with benefit, be spent in more leisurely eating. It is important that enough time be allowed for eating.

The kinds of foods needed are the same for everyone, but the quantity varies with your age, size, and your activities. Only if you will eat a good breakfast can your mental and physical fitness remain at highest levels during the morning, which, for most people, are the most productive hours of the day.

Breakfasts for health and pep should contain: fruit or fruit juice, cereal with milk, meat or eggs, bread, milk (coffee for adults).

Fruit

We should have a serving of citrus fruit or tomatoes every day for Vitamin C. This vitamin is not stored to any extent in the body and must be eaten daily. Tissues through out the body can't be kept in good condition without Vitamin C, for gums are tender and bleed easily, and joints swell and hurt, if we lack Vitamin C.

Fruit also acts as a brush in the body, so it preventa constipation. Other good sources of Vitamin C are watermelon, cantaloupe, strawberries. All are good for breakfast in season.

Cereal and Milk . . . . .

Wholegrain or enriched cereal and bread are important to the body because:

1. It furnishes energy.
2. It furnishes minerals and vitamins, which promote growth and protects the body against disease.
3. It furnishes bulk, which aids in eliminating waste from the body and prevents constipation.
4. It furnishes muscle - building material (protein).
5. It is inexpensive, easy to prepare and digest.

Cereal and milk make a wonderful team, and each makes an important contribution to health. Milk is important to the health of the body because:

1. It furnishes minerals to build bones and teeth.
2. It furnishes vitamins, which promote growth and prevent infections.
3. It furnishes energy in the form of fat and carbohydrates.
4. It furnishes protein, which builds tissue.
5. It is easily and completely digested, and inexpensive, considering its food value.

For variation in milk at breakfast, try fixing cocoa. Add 1 or 2 tablespoons of cocoa syrup for each cup of milk. To make a quantity of this syrup, cook 1 cup of cocoa, 2 cups sugar, 2 tablespoons corn-syrup, and 2 cups water for 10 minutes or until clear and slightly thick. Store in jars in refrigerator.

Eggs for Breakfast

Eggs are one of the most valuable body-building foods and are easily digested if properly prepared. They should be included in each day's menu when possible.

Eggs are important to the health of the body because they provide:

1. Protein for growth and repair of tissues.
2. Minerals, especially iron, that build good blood.
3. Vitamins, that protect the body from disease and promote health.
4. Energy for work, growth and pep.

Eggs need special care. Keep them in a cool place, free from odors. If possible keep them covered. It is safer to break each egg into a saucer or pramine it before adding it to the dish that is being prepared. Cook eggs at low temperatures. High temperature makes them tough and leathery.

To scramble eggs, add 1 tablespoon cream or milk to each egg, beat until fluffy, cook in a small amount of fat over moderate heat, low flame, or top of double boiler. Bacon and ham bits may be added for flavor. Try 2 tablespoons chopped parsley and chives to add zip.

Try broiling bacon or cooking it in the oven. Try a rack in a biscuit pan when doing small quantities. It will cook while oven heats for biscuits.

NEW BOOK IN THE COUNTY LIBRARY

The Genteel Murderer, by Charles Norman.

The hands which were elegantly clothed with pale lemon-colored gloves were the hands of a murderer. The fingers were always agitter with rings; one of them contained strychnine. These were the hands of Thomas Griffiths Wainwright, one of history's most intriguing mass-murderers. In this unique biographical adventure, Charles Norman has gone to original sources to give us Thomas G. Wainwright's life. He was a dandy with exquisite sensibilities, a good conversationists and a charming host. He could well afford to be, for he swindled the Bank of England out of thousands of pounds with a power of attorney drawn up by himself. At the peak of his career, Wainwright was one of the cocks of the social walk, but his true genius lay neither in the drawing room, nor in literature and art. He was a murderer for profit.

Some 5,000 acres of rolling seashore land in the Virgin Islands has been presented to the Government as a national park by Laurance S. Rockefeller.

Carver-Price School News

Hello Readers!

We won last Friday night's game against Central High, of Charlotte Courthouse, by a score of 51 to 24. High scorer for the evening was Raymond Lawing with 12 points. The Varsity and Coach Thomas, as well as we students, were most happy over the win. In the preliminary game, our girls lost to the Charlotte Courthouse girls team, in their first game of the year. They looked very nice in their beautiful new grey and maroon uniforms and we felt proud of them.

On last Wednesday at Assembly, Principal R. E. Patrick introduced the P. E. Instructor, Mrs. H. P. James, who in turn introduced each member of the girlss' Varsity and Junior Varsity, who wore the newly arrived basketball uniforms. "Santa" was very kind to our team for they did need the uniforms. Twelve varsity members will wear them: Mary Franklin, Pearl Jones, Emmagean Patterson, Hazel Gafford, Betty Johnson, Bernice Dillard, Clara Ferguson, Martha Calloway, Fannie Scott, Marie Forbes, Eolise Ferguson, and Harolyn Walker.

Friday evening, January 11, our Panthers play Susie Gibson High, of Bedford at 8:00 P. M. Come out and see our team win over this school. We won over them on their home court and we definitely should win here at home.

County Teachers Meeting was held on Monday, January 7, at 4:00 P. M. in the Library with President R. Q. Lawing presiding. A group discussion was conducted by Supervisor Mozella J. Price, and led by Mrs. Hezeine Foster, on handwriting, Manuscript and cursive writing, and the time to begin students was well discussed. The latter half of Grade 2 and first half of Grade 3 was found, as from authorities, the time to start pupils depending upon muscular coordination and deevlopment.

The contest for "Miss Carver-Price" begins this week and ends February 15, with the crowning of the queen at half-time during the Staunton - Carver game. The winner will represent us at the Regional Tournament in Lexington on February 21, will be admitted to baseball and basketball games free for a year, and will receive a gift. All classes from grades one to twelve will participate in the contest. The queen will be chosen from grades six through twelve.

The Science meeting of teachers under the supervision of State Board of Education will be held at Carver-Price High School January 15, 1957. This is a regional meeting for the teachers in this area. About 100 are expected to be present. There will be representatives from the primary division, elementary division and the high school division of each school.

Mr. Richard E. Patrick will attend the basketball tournament committee meeting at Virginia State College Saturday, January 12.

The N. H. A. met January 7. The meeting was called to order by the president, Celestine Chambers. It was decided that an officer training school will be held at Carver-Price High February 9, 1957. A committee was appointed to write letters to the nearby schools.

Our thought for the week is: "Knowledge is a treasure, but practice is thhe key to it."
